WHAT TO SAY WHEN YOUR EX HAS A BABY

Mum's the word: Jennifer Aniston uttered not a syllable about Brad and Angelina's pregnancy. Now that the world has welcomed Shiloh Jolie-Pitt, Jen might want to check out how others have handled the news:

JENNIFER LOPEZ on Ben Affleck & Jennifer Garner: "I HOPE THAT THEY'RE HAPPY... IT'S A BEAUTIFUL THING. THERE ARE NO HARD FEELINGS."

VERA MODER on Julia Roberts & Danny Moder: "I DON'T FEEL ANYTHING ABOUT JULIA, BECAUSE MY BABY IS MORE IMPORTANT RIGHT NOW."

SHAR JACKSON on Kevin Federline & Britney Spears: "I STAY COMPLETELY OUT OF [IT]. I DON'T ASK QUESTIONS... IT'S NONE OF MY BUSINESS."

TORI'S WEDDING: TAKE TWO

A month after their intimate Fiji wedding, the honeymoon's not over for Tori Spelling and Dean McDermott. On June 2 the couple and 97 guests—including Dean's son Jack, 7 (but not Tori's parents, Aaron and Candy)—met stateside in L.A. for a belated reception (planned by Love Luck and Angels' Jo Gartin). While guests feasted on lamb and tuna tartare, McDermott entertained with an impromptu bongo performance. As for the rumors that Tori is expecting? "Tori is not pregnant," says McDermott. "But I am."

OFF THE MARKET

Adam Mesh—the breakout star of 2003's find-me-a-date show Average Joe—is single no more: The day-trader, 30, and financier Jessica Malca, 25, exchanged vows in front of 270 guests at Miami's Temple Beth David May 28. "She looked beautiful," Mesh tells Scoop. "Better than I ever imagined a bride of mine would look."
